ENTRANCE OF THE LIGHT OF CHRIST

*CALL TO WORSHIP

(Ciona Rouse)

When the world divides us:

Come, Holy Spirit, make us one.

When the world calls us orphaned:

Come, Holy Spirit, make us family.

When the world leads us astray:

Come, Holy Spirit, call us home.

Come, Holy Spirit, come! Come and fill this place!

*OPENING PRAYER

(Traditional Prayer, Mongolia, Alt.)

O God, that we may receive your blessing, touch our brows, touch our heads, and do not look upon us in anger.

In a hard year, offer us mercy;

in a year of affliction, offer us kindness;

dark spirits banish from us, bright spirits bring close to us;

gray spirits put away from us, good spirits draw near to us.

When we are afraid, offer us courage;

when we are ashamed, be our true face;

be over us like a blanket, be under us like a bed of furs. Amen.

(J. Allan McIntosh)

God of all nations,
we thank you for the life and history of our country,
for its vast beauty, its wilderness,
and wealth of forest, mine, and sea.

We praise you for its people,
the people whose ancestors
have been here for thousands of years,
and those who have just arrived.

We thank you for the variety of our traditions and our cultures,
the riches of our spiritual and religious heritage,
the strength of our democratic institutions.

We pray for our nation,
for our citizens, residents, and governments
that working together we may face the future with confident hope and faith in your purpose for our world.
In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Notes:

Mark 5: 21 - 43

Since Jesus crossed the lake again, and on the other side a large crowd gathered around him on the shore. 22 Jairus, one of the synagogue leaders, came forward. When he saw Jesus, he fell at his feet 23 and pleaded with him, “My daughter is about to die. Please, come and place your hands on her so that she can be healed and live.” 24 So Jesus went with him.

A swarm of people were following Jesus, crowding in on him. 25 A woman was there who had been bleeding for twelve years. 26 She had suffered a lot under the care of many doctors, and had spent everything she had without getting any better. In fact, she had gotten worse. 27 Because she had heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his clothes. 28 She was thinking, If I can just touch his clothes, I’ll be healed. 29 Her bleeding stopped immediately, and she sensed in her body that her illness had been healed.

30 At that very moment, Jesus recognized that power had gone out from him. He turned around in the crowd and said, “Who touched my clothes?” 31 His disciples said to him, “Don’t you see the crowd pressing against you? Yet you ask, ‘Who touched me?’” 32 But Jesus looked around carefully to see who had done it. 33 The woman, full of fear and trembling, came forward. Knowing what had happened to her, she fell down in front of Jesus and told him the whole truth. 34 He responded, “Daughter, your faith has healed you; go in peace, healed from your disease.” 35 While Jesus was still speaking with her, messengers came from the synagogue leader’s house, saying to Jairus, “Your daughter has died. Why bother the teacher any longer?”

36 But Jesus overheard their report and said to the synagogue leader, “Don’t be afraid; just keep trusting.” 37 He didn’t allow anyone to follow him except Peter, James, and John, James’ brother. 38 They came to the synagogue leader’s house, and he saw a commotion, with people crying and wailing loudly. 39 He went in and said to them, “What’s all this commotion and crying about? The child isn’t dead. She’s only sleeping.” 40 They laughed at him, but he threw them all out. Then, taking the child’s parents and his disciples with him, he went to the room where the child was. 41 Taking her hand, he said to her, “Talitha koum,” which means, “Young woman, get up.” 42 Suddenly the young woman got up and began to walk around. She was 12 years old. They were shocked! 43 He gave them strict orders that no one should know what had happened. Then he told them to give her something to eat.
