ENTRANCE OF THE LIGHT OF CHRIST

*CALL TO WORSHIP

(Mary Frances McClure ©2011 Mary Frances McClure)

We meet in different buildings; in different towns.

We speak different languages and sing different hymns.

We wear different clothing and have different gifts and talents.

Yet, as we gather together for worship on Sundays,
we become one body, one family in Christ.

We join together on one journey,

the journey to unite with the Risen Christ.

We join together with God as the Kingdom of God comes and as God's will is done.

Let us join with all our brothers and sisters in worship and true communion with God this day. Amen.

*OPENING PRAYER

(Richard Eslinger©2006 Upper Room Books)

We praise you with joy, loving God,

for your grace is better than life itself.

You have sustained us through the darkness,

and you bless us with life in this new day.

In the shadow of your wings we sing for joy and bless your holy name. Amen.

*PASSING OF THE PEACE

May the peace of Jesus Christ be with you,

And also with you.

O living Christ, you changed Cana's water into festal wine.
Transform our common worship into celebration,
that we may taste your glory here and now
and anticipate that heavenly banquet where we shall behold your face for ever. Amen

John 2: 1 - 11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, and 2 Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the celebration. 3 When the wine ran out, Jesus' mother said to him, "They don't have any wine."

4 Jesus replied, "Woman, what does that have to do with me? My time hasn't come yet."

5 His mother told the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." 6 Nearby were six stone water jars used for the Jewish cleansing ritual, each able to hold about twenty or thirty gallons.

7 Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water," and they filled them to the brim. 8 Then he told them, "Now draw some from them and take it to the headwaiter," and they did. 9 The headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine. He didn't know where it came from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew.

The headwaiter called the groom 10 and said, "Everyone serves the good wine first. They bring out the second-rate wine only when the guests are drinking freely. You kept the good wine until now." 11 This was the first miraculous sign that Jesus did in Cana of Galilee. He revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him.
